The ground floor accommodation comprises: a generous reception hallway, bright and spacious lounge with front facing bay window, dining room, impressive breakfasting kitchen, large utility room and a WC. Off the upper landing are three double bedrooms, bedroom four/study and a family bathroom. Warmth is provided by a gas central heating system and a mix of double and secondary glazing. There is a host of traditional features such as decorative cornicing, ceiling roses, picture rails and deep skirtings.

For the garden lover the property sits in wrap around garden grounds which are bound by fencing, hedging and have a fine array of fruit trees, perennial shrubs, trees, vegetable beds, and lawns. Potting shed to the rear, patio, external water tap, gravel paths, shed and a large driveway to the side completes the external grounds.
